

NCFE CACHE Level 4 Award in Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Leadership and Management in the Early Years

The Level 4 Award in Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Leadership and Management in the Early Years has been designed for those already working in a lead SENDCo role within early years settings who wish to increase confidence in relation to leadership and management progression.

The qualification prepares learners for leadership and management in specific aspects of the SENDCo role including - enabling best outcomes for children and their families, personal development, liaison with parents/carers, colleagues and other professionals.

Who is it suitable for?

Building on the Level 3 Award for Special Educational Needs Coordinators in Early Years Settings, this qualification offers Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and is aimed at Level 3 Early Years practitioners working in a private, voluntary or independent early years setting.

How is this qualification structured?

In order to achieve the Level 4 Award, learners must achieve three mandatory units.

How long will it take?

Approximately 6-7 months. Learners will be enrolled for 7 months.

How much does it cost?

The course fee is £672, this includes the Early Years Alliance student membership. Membership includes access to EYA Learn online training courses.

For learners aged 19+ this course can be funded through an Advanced Learner Loan

Further information can be found on the government website: <https://www.gov.uk/advanced-learner-loan>

Please contact the Training Centre for advice and guidance on fees and funding eligibility.

How will the training be delivered?

This course is delivered via a blend of small group virtual teaching sessions, online learning and